GET YOUR SKATES ON!

This awesome unit is ready for you to move in and get unpacking. Offering exceptional value to the astute buyer, you have got to come and have a look. Tucked away towards the rear on a 192sqm of space.

Located in a tidy complex, you will not need a car as there is a bus stop nearby, two shopping complexes, doctor's surgery, John Forrest National Park on your doorstep and all the infrastructure Midland has to offer.

The property has a modern light and airy feel with new wood-look flooring to the living areas, shiny white cabinetry to the fantastic kitchen offering plenty of cupboards and new cooker. The master bedroom has a built-in robe and the secondary bedrooms are of a great size and would fit double beds and one features a robe recess and all have been fitted with new carpets. The newly renovated bathroom is fresh and inviting and has a shower over bath giving you either option. The separate toilet is off the newly fitted laundry which has lots of cupboards for storage.

Outside, the backyard is easy care so you do not spend all your time in the garden or even if you do want to garden you have the opportunity to choose easy care options with garden beds in place. Your parking needs are taken care of by a single carport plus there is additional visitor parking at the front of the complex.
