RETIREMENT NEST EGG

No matter what age you are, or when you get your superannuation, this 1639sqm subdivisible* block with a comfortable cottage style home, represents possibly the best investment in the marketplace.

Currently zoned R12.5 (allows for an average of 800sqm per subdivided parcel), this block is in a fantastic location and is walking distance to sought after primary schools in Greenmount and is only a short drive to Midland.

The home itself features a neat cottage facade and has plenty of forecourt parking at the front of the building.

The interior has a lounge that features a ceiling rose, ornate cornices, open fire place and wooden floors, all which add to the comfortable, cosy feel.

The neat kitchen has a wrap around bench, downlights, french doors leading out to the entertaining deck. This deck is a great place to have your morning coffee or late afternoon wine while taking in the pleasant views overlooking the backyard of mature trees, abundant birdlife and nature reserve to the rear boundary. For the greenthumb, there is also a peaceful 'fernerv' sitting area.
