30 Fairfax Rd, Swan View

This home has a unique style very rarely seen in this area.

This is a good looking home and the 1st thing to notice is the very secure front yard. There is another yard at the rear and they are both fully fenced, great for pets/kids and security. There is lots of room for parking, plus side/rear access giving you more than enough room for caravans, trailers etc.

When we walk into this home we enter the formal entry which adjoins the sunken lounge area, a large room featuring high ceilings and exposed beams and would make a perfect theatre room with it's cosy warmth.

A light and bright remodelled kitchen has lots of benchspace, loads of cupboards, a double sink, gas cooktop and microwave nook, plus a large pantry. The kitchen adjoins the dining area which could be used as another living/office area and has hard wearing floors and a reverse cycle air conditioner, plus more windows to let
